THE MAASAI CULTURE CENTER

Culture is part of the stay, not an add-on

The architecture, décor and table settings draw on Maasai design, and the Culture Center, opened in early 2026, sits within the ecoVillage grounds. Community members are the hosts, and a scheduled Culture Center experience is included in every Full Board stay.

Song and dance

Including the adumu, the jumping dance of Maasai warriors.

Beadwork

Hands-on time with Maasai artisans and the craft behind the colors.

Stories from the elders

Oral history and traditions shared around the fire.

The boma

A guided walk through a traditional homestead.

FARM-TO-TABLE DINING

The farm is on the same land as your villa

The ecoFarm began in 2021. Today it grows vegetables, dairy and meat for the ecoVillage. Menus follow the seasons, the kitchen cooks with what the farm produces, and special diets, including vegetarian and gluten-free, are handled with care.

- ecoFarm since 2021
- 1,000+ fruit trees
- Hundreds of chickens
- Zero-grazing dairy
- Hydroponics
- Bio-gas
- Farm tours

> “ The food was the best of our entire holiday! I loved the fact that everything served is from the farm they have.

EVERY STAY SUPPORTS OUR GIRLS

100% of profits support the Maasai Girls Rescue Center.

Founded in 2017, the Maasai Girls Rescue Center (MGRC) gives at-risk Maasai girls a safe home with house mothers, schooling, medical care, counselling and career training. The lodge was created to fund that work from hospitality revenue, not donor appeals.

1 · You book a villa

No donation appeal at checkout. The stay is the contribution.

2 · The lodge runs as a business

With a local team. MGRC girls train in hospitality.

3 · Profits fund the center

Homes, schooling and career programs.

Guests are welcome to tour the Rescue Center and meet the girls.
